INTERCHURCH HEALTH MINISTRIES CANADA PRESENTS

2017 AGM & Education Event with the Rev Wes Coburn

HOPE: The Real Alternative to Medical Aid in Dying

The Rev Wes Coburn, a chaplain with a rich academic background stemming from both the United States and Canada, is trained in clinical pastoral care. He has over thirty years' experience in pastoral ministry. Wes, as a Supportive Care Clinician, is a member of the hospice palliative care interdisciplinary team at Stedman Community Hospice in Brantford, Ontario. In this role, he assesses, acknowledges and nurtures those who are living with advanced illness and the journey of dying and death.
